In order to comply with the regulations and to allow your activity to continue on the Academy premises from 1 September 2008 you must furnish us with:

- proof of Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) checks for all adults involved in running an activity with children – this will include registration numbers and information regarding any complaints which have been investigated but remain unproven
- a list of all personnel which must be kept updated

This information will remain confidential to the Academy and will only be used should:
